Months of stay abroad :

Planned start date of the stay: 15 March 2019

Planned end date of the stay: 15 May 2019

Objectives of the stay: The New Entrepreneurs (NE) focus is to learn about the professional world of entrepreneurship within the creative industries as a costume designer. The Host Entrepreneur (HE) has a long and successful path in creating a unique working model in the market of costume design that would benefit NE greatly. The knowledge of craft making, skill level and creative approach to the market of costume design would be a great boost for NE as a costume designer and as a starter of a costume design studio. Opportunity to experience the unique working model of HE and the practical skills gained through the exchange are crucial to reach the goals of the NE. Concretely this will mean that NE will take part in the daily operations of HE practice of creating special costumes. Both new and host entrepreneur will benefit from this exchange since they are both familiar with the market of costume design. To go even further: coming from different countries and generations they will be able to vibrantly exchange knowledge and learn from each other.

Description of the work/learning project: The exchange will be based on the learning process in the costume workshop. NE will experience this exchange by taking part in every day operations in the studio, by observing professional and successful business of HE. Besides learning new skills NE will obtain knowledge of working relations of a collective work in costume studio. The exchange will be focussed around activities relating to creating costumes for upcoming projects, different aspects of project management, and studio-based work.

Proposed plan of activities: The exchange will take place for two months during spring of 2019. Monthly plan of proposed activities: - In mid March the NE arrives to the workshop of HE. The introduction of the workspace and the team starts. NE will get to know the current projects and concrete plans for these projects. HE get to know NE and become acquainted with her experience and skills. The NE will be included in the activities of the studio for learning purposes and will also be given opportunities to contribute to the processes. HE will explain professional levels of work and their interaction with clients (like Opera). - In mid April the focus will be perfecting acquired craft skills of NE and work routines. Accompanying HE in their ongoing projects will continue in the second month of the exchange. Also NE will start planning and arranging with clients in Slovenia to get costume design project. During the whole exchange, the NE will also build the foundation to start costume design studio in Slovenia.

Expected outcome: The expected outcomes of this exchange are: -In depth knowledge of various costume design techniques; - Exploring important business routines; - Improvement of professional relationships between German and Slovenian costume designers; - An exchange in knowledge, cultural perspectives and experiences between NE/HE; - Improved skills in entrepreneurship, networking and collaborations for the NE. The goals are: - Implementing new knowledge in NE business; - Creation of a costume designer studio in Slovenia in 2020; - At least 3 projects in 2019 for NE in Slovenia.
